

Live The Life

With sadness in my heart
I came upon a road
A road so straight and true
None can walk upon that road
But those with life anew

The longest ever to be seen
Into the distance and beyond
No bend not hills but sunset clear
Where trees of life abound
And the people of the Lord be found

A robe of white for all
Who walk this pilgrim way
A journey so heavenward bound
The enemy and hell to slay
So step forward you soldiers of the Lord

Live life in the fullness and power
Stir the joy and raise the flag
For tis the victory for the highest
And be thankful for the praise
For the mercies God has shown

Dawn is breaking wake the sleepers
To the day of heavens call
Prime your lamps and fill with oil
Heavens door is opening soon
Be ready for the Master's call

Jim's Jottings

First of all Cynthia and I want to thank everyone who came, or sent correspondence, to the Saturday evening "Jimboree" as we celebrated three birthdays (not getting younger but older), plus Roland's farewell, after helping us here for three years. It was so refreshing just to be together for a fun night!! and food. Let us have another reason before long!! Sweet fellowship.

As we move into the second half of 2015 we shall need to remember that one of the most important ingredients to every day life is communication. Too little and we are in the dark, too much and we forget the detail. Our priority of course is to keep in touch with our beloved Saviour and friend Jesus Christ, and we are kept on track as we read, digest and ponder on our daily notes, plus following the suggested bible readings. Keep in touch with Headquarters.

It is equally important to maintain fellowship with each other and take time to listen to each other, not with gossip or tittle tattle, but how we are progressing in our personal journey and theirs, taking opportunity to become a closer friend in the family of God. Maybe, often some need a listening ear, a prayer, or even a cuppa! or a hand on the shoulder! Help us O Lord to commit ourselves in these next two months to do Acts of Random Kindness (ark) - in Jesus name. HAVE A GO! AND BE HAPPY!!
Jim

Thank you

Hello to our dear friends. Must thank you for hosting the Memorial Service for Andy. It was a beautiful experience altogether. His love was there in abundance (I'm sure helping Fred and Anne especially and all of us who knew Andy to come to terms with the tragedy). That Love is still in the meetings, the same Love we experienced 40 years ago when we first came to Hollybush. God's wonderful restorative presence is still blessing you all - keep going- He's not finished with Hollybush yet - He has a lot more in store. Exodus 33 13-15 Love you all so much. Lewis and Ruth Staley

We just wanted to say a huge THANK YOU for the warmth of everyone's welcome when we visited Hollybush for the Riding Lights Roughshod performance. It was really lovely to meet everyone and to be made to feel at home so quickly Love Heather & Stuart Priest (York)

'Tis the season for camping! At least the calendar says so if not the weather.

Remember to keep in prayer as we approach our Camp week. We have various Speakers coming during the week and we are in for a good Camp. Please endeavour to get to the Tuesday night prayer meetings leading up to Camp.
