Jims Jottings

Dear Friends

As I pen these words I am observing a marvellous sunrise, one of many these recent days, including sunsets!! I am reminded of an old hymn “Jesus shall reign, where er the sun , does it ‘s successive journeys run, His kingdom stretch from shore to shore, till the sun shall rise and set no more”. Of course these words were written in the majestic era of empire days. Days of expansion and forward looking.

Vera Lynn is 100 years old. Who is she you may ask! She was a singer and known by everyone as world war II progressed. The allied forces were driven back over the English channel at great loss of lives. Morale was very low indeed. Virtually from that time right throughout the war she travelled amongst the soldiers singing “there’ll be bluebirds over the white cliffs of Dover, tomorrow, just you wait and see”. And we did! That song is well remembered even today. Through the winter nights, some can become pessimistic, but turn the tide in your thought life. “All things work together for good, to those who love the Lord”. To qualify that portion of scripture are three words “we know that” - Hallelujah! So turn negative to positive (think snowdrops and daffodils) we have a wonderful Saviour who never changes. Put spring into your spiritual step!!
