

HOLLYBUSH NEEDS YOU!

Last year's Family Camp was a great success - largely down to the hard work of all those who volunteered and played their part with a servant heart - thank you, again!

There are only four weeks to Family Camp! So, we need to start planning the Family Camp Rota and this can not be done without your willing support again. Hollybush needs you .... Volunteers, take one step forward!

The Rota schedules is on display in the main church and we need volunteers to sign-up for the following areas:

Cafe: food prep; serving; washing up; cleaning; and till (Cashier)

Children: Play Tent (3-5yrs); and Bouncy Castle

Outlets: Pie Stall (lunch time only); Tuck Shop; Mission Barn (as per opening times)

Please note: Preference will be given for an area of service to those who volunteered for the same area of service for the 2018 Family camp.

As last year, if you can only make a small contribution to the above areas of service then that will be greatly appreciated. In fact, the more (volunteers), the merrier!

Jim's Jottings

Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. Isaiah 60 v 1. This verse lit up to me instantly as I pondered what I should write today. At the prayer meeting last night as I read out the requests concerning illness and need, sixteen names were mentioned, of our membership: That is a significant figure, and all different ages. I know also that I am not the eldest member of the Church!! Unobtrusively, the words of Ecclesiastes come into mind that "There is a time for everything under the sun" (Ch 3 vs1-8), and it includes everyone of us. Which brings me a warning and challenge. The warning—to nourish and cherish our next of kin and the church family and friends or our Saviour. Tell and remind them that we love, care and honour each other, say it and do it while we can. The challenge—to ask the Lord, in the power of the Holy Spirit to be so full of love, joy and peace in unity that we will see and partake of the fruit and gifts bestowed and manifest for to see that the unfulfilled promises will be manifest openly for everyone to partake. A good time to begin would be right now—ready for Camp 2019.

Be being blest—and step forward in the spirit of The Lord.

Joanna's Jottings

Rest with Me a while

You have journeyed up a steep, rugged path in recent days. The way ahead is shrouded in uncertainty. Look neither behind you nor before you. Instead, focus your attention on ME, your constant companion. Trust that I will equip you fully for whatever awaits you on your journey...I designed time to be a protection for you. You couldn't bear to see all your life at once. Though I am unlimited by time, it is the present moment that I meet you. Refresh yourself in my company, breathing deep draughts of my presence. The highest level of trust is to enjoy me moment by moment. I am with you watching over you, wherever you go...

My daughter, Gabriella, is preparing to go on a music tour to Tuscan with the school, flying out to sing in concerts in church's, open air and visiting the Puccini Museum to sing round his piano!

I am flying out to join them for a couple of days. God has timed this trip so I am trusting Him that I won't get lost on my own in a foreign country!!! I feel like I will be out of what we sometimes call, OUR COMFORT ZONE!!!

Which, provokes me to say, Lord, take us out of our comfort zones, as we head for Family Camp 2019, "Calling—Obedience— Legacy...."

“ I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised”

Genesis 28 v15

Keep on, pressing on,
Joanna
